

If the Shoe Fits

Provide an example of a shoe shown in the exhibit 'Heights of Fashion' that corresponds to the listed characteristic of different societies through time. Then, describe why the chosen shoe reflects the provided societal characteristic.

Characteristic of Society	Example of a Shoe	Why it corresponds to the given societal characteristic
Political privilege in France
Status and wealth amongst upper classes
Androgyny and unisex fashions are in style
Roads not yet paved
Emergence of wide paved boulevards
The use of rationed materials during World War Two Popularity of disco		